Acceptance Criteria

| User Story ID | User Story | Given | When | Then |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| 1.1 | As a client, I want to be able to upload files seamlessly and in a secure manner | I want to upload a text file | I click a button which allows me to select the file and begin the upload | I can see a confirmation that the system has successfully uploaded my file |
| 1.2 | As a client, I want to be able to develop a profile to be used for analysis and it should be quite | I want to add documents that I know have been written by the owner of the profile | I select add document on the Students page | I can then see the document appear the in the list of entries on the students page |
| 1.2.1 | As a client, I want to be table to add any analyzed text to a profile | I have analyzed a text against a profile and been given verification that it was written by the owner of the profile | I click a button allowing me to add the analyzed text to the individuals profile | I can then see the text file visible in the profile |
| 1.3 | As a client, I want to be able to analyze text against a profile that is stored in a manner that feels accurate and I should feel confident about the result. | I have an assignment submission whose author identity I want to confirm | I click a button on the assignment page that allows me to upload a file and select a student from the class of that assignme t | I see a new entry in the assignments page detailing the student and the similarity of the submission to their other works |
| 1.3.1 | As a client , I want to view detailed insight of an analysis | I have an entry in an assignment page where I have compared a text to a persons profile | I click a button on that entry | I should be redirected to a new page showing the text and a detailed analysis |
| 2.1 | As a client, I want to be able to create an account in a fast and secure manner | I want to use the TextDNA service as a new user | I click a button on the landing page that allows me to create an account | A window should pop up which shows fields that I need to fill out to create an account |
| 2.2 | As a client, I want to be able to log in | I want to access the TextDNA service | I click a button on the menu allowing | I should be redirected to my profile page |

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| | to the interface in a seamless manner | | me to log in and enter my details | |
| 2.3 | As a client, I want to be able to log out of the interface in a seamless manner | I want to stop using the TextDNA service | I click a button on the menu allowing me to log out | I should be redirected to the landing page of the interface |
| 2.4 | As a teacher, I want to be able to manage my class in a user-friendly and almost intuitive manner. | I want to add assignments or students to my class | I click a button on the associated class entry in my profile | I should be redirected to the class's page |
| 2.4.1 | As a teacher, I want to be able to add student profiles with ease | I want to add a new student for comparison use | I click add student in the class page | I should be prompted to enter the students detail and then redirected to their page when complete |
| 2.4.2 | As a teacher, I want to be able to view class assignments | I want to view the assignments that are within my class | I click on a view assignment button on the class page | It shows a list of the assignments within my class |
| 2.4.3 | As a teacher, I want to be able to view submissions for an assignment | I want to view all the submissions I have compared for an assignment | I click on a button in the class page that allows me to view details of an assignment | I am redirected to the assignments page which shows a list of all submissions I have compared |